Reaction to Latest D-Y Development

MEMPHIS (AP)—The President's order for reappraisal of the Dixon-Yates contract drew sharply divided reaction in this area — home of the power combine's bitterest foes and fastest friends.

Mayor George Dempster of Knoxville, Tenn., president of Citizens for TVA, Inc., predicted the controversial contract would be cancelled.

By contrast, across the Mississippi River in West Memphis, Ar., site of the proposed 107-million dollar Dixon-Yates plant, Chamber of Commerce President W. K. Ingram said:

"We know the Dixon-Yates plant will be built because we know it will cost the government 140 million dollars to cancel the contract and it would be unwise to place that burden on the nation's taxpayers."

"Every piece of the Dixon-Yates plant is on order or is being fabricated at the present time. The government would have to pay the costs, plus the engineering already done, and anticipated profits for the first three years of operation."

The Memphis Commercial Appeal, in a dispatch from its Washington Bureau, reported Budget Director Rowland Hughes was asked how much it would cost to cancel the contract and said:

"That's one of the things we must study. It won't be much."

Mayor Frank Toney of Memphis said the President's action yesterday was not unexpected.

"It is perfectly logical that there would be no need for the Dixon-Yates plant to serve Memphis if Memphis was building its own plant," he said.

Mayor H. B. Price of West Memphis, declined to comment.

House Debates Ike's Reserve Program

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (AP)—The House got another shot at President Eisenhower's military reserve program today with opponents primed to battle on two main issues.

Leaders predicted the House would pass a measure designed to encourage a million teenagers to volunteer, during the next four years, for a planned reserve force of 2,900,000 men.

This was the second attempt to get House approval of an administration-backed bill aimed at strengthening the nation's military reserves.

Over a month ago, the House adopted an anti-segregation amendment, impelling House leaders to withdraw the bill to avert its possible defeat. Earlier this month, after repeated proddings from Eisenhower — The House Armed Services Committee brought out a new bill designed to skirt the segregation issue and other sources of contention.

Builders Should Add Medical Rooms as Homes Today Are Really Small Drug Store

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Most new houses being built today have a recreation room. What they really need is a medicine room.

Every home today is a small drugstore.

It overflows with scores of tubes and bottles and jars of medicine, lotions and cosmetics which the average human being now feels he needs to keep himself physically fit and socially acceptable.

The American people never have been more healthy—and never have taken more medicine. Some people now get their main exercise simply by the muscular effort expended in taking the medicine to keep themselves feeling well — or applying the toiletary aids which they hope will make them look less creepy.

A man's social status today is judged as much by the diseases he boasts as by his bank account. You never can be sure how far he really has risen in the world until you get a peek into his bathroom medicine cabinet.

The trouble is that no medicine cabinet is large enough any longer to hold the jumbled drug hoards of a civilized family.

I can remember as a boy when the old-fashioned small bathroom medicine cabinet in our home was quite ample. It held a jar of vaseline, a tube of toothpaste, a box of baking soda, a razor, a cake of shaving soap, a bottle of iodine, a package of absorbent cotton, a can of talcum, a roll of gauze and some adhesive tape. Oh, yes, and some boric acid solution and a small tin of aspirin tablets.

This small stock served the health needs of a family of seven.

Forty Million Cars to Be on Highways

By United Press
The nation starts its three-day Fourth of July holiday today sobered by a warning that a record 380 persons may be killed on the highways before the long weekend ends.

About 40,000,000 cars—an all-time high for the holiday—were expected to clog the nation's roads between 6 p. m. today and midnight Monday.

The National Safety Council based its record estimate of traffic deaths on the high turnout of cars. But it issued an additional plea that heavy traffic doesn't have to mean highway slaughter.

The holiday found the nation's eastern half sweltering in a muggy heat wave.

Cool air was pushing across the northern and central plains, sending temperatures falling 10 to 20 degrees in parts of the Western Midwest and touching off thunderstorms and squalls.

But it was hot and sticky in the east, with no relief promised within at least 24 hours. Temperatures late yesterday included 96 at Minneapolis, Minn., and Grantsburg, Wis., and 94.1—the hottest day of the year—at Chicago.

The hot weather threatened to increase the number of drownings during the big summer holiday and perhaps step up the flow of traffic even higher.

But at least one traditional July 4th menace—fatal fireworks explosions—appeared well under control in at least 42 states.

D-Y Opponents Claim Victory in Power Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee today voted to deny money for a power line to link the proposed Dixon-Yates plant with the TVA system if the city of Memphis takes definite action within 90 days to build its own power plant.

Congressional critics of the Dixon-Yates project hailed the developments as signalling that they were winning their battle to block it.

Before the Senate committee action, which means withholding the 6½ millions for the power line for the time being, Democratic Leader Johnson (Tex.) had urged in a Senate speech that no funds be voted now.

After the Appropriations Committee session, Sen. Bridges (R-NH) told a reporter the group had written into the TVA appropriations bill a provision that the 6½ million dollars may not be spent "if Memphis goes ahead within 90 days on its own plant."

White House press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Budget Director Rowland Hughes had already started the review of the Dixon-Yates contract which the President ordered. He said Hughes expected to make a report and recommendation to the President early next week.

Normally, the Budget Bureau said, cancellation costs would take into account any direct expenditures made, such as costs of materials purchased or orders placed for the work.

The President asked the Budget Bureau to consider "promptly" the matter with the Atomic Energy Commission and the Tennessee Valley Authority. Budget Director Rowland R. Hughes said, "a probable result" may be that the Dixon-Yates plant won't be mentioned "in ample time" for consideration by the Senate when it takes up TVA appropriations, probably next week.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), who has fought the Dixon-Yates project from the beginning, said the President's action indicated to him that "they are thinking very seriously about this and I think the contract will be canceled." Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) agreed with Kefauver.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, said he hoped the President's order "is preliminary to cancellation."

In Memphis, Mayor Frank Toney said the "President's action was one to be expected, as it is perfectly logical that there would be no need for the Dixon-Yates plant to serve the Memphis area if Memphis was building its own plant."

Mayor George Dempster of Knoxville said, "I think after all the information is in, they'll drop the whole thing." Dempster, who also is president of Citizens for TVA, Inc., said the contract "has no one single item of justification."

On the other hand, W. K. Ingram, president of the West Memphis, Ark., Chamber of Commerce, said the plan would be built because "we know it will cost the government 140 million dollars to cancel the contract." The contract calls for the government to repay the projects backers for their actual outlays in the event of cancellation.

Acting under a contract with the AEC, the Dixon-Yates utility group already has started work on the 107-million-dollar plant at West Memphis, across the Mississippi River from Memphis. Present plans call for feeding energy from this plant into the TVA system to replace power diverted to government atomic plants.

Ingram said "every piece" of the plant is on order or being made and that "the government would have to pay these costs, plus the engineering already done and anticipated profits for the first three years of operation." But Hughes was quoted by the Memphis Commercial Appeal as saying the cancellation costs "won't be much."

TVA contemplated channeling Dixon-Yates power into the Memphis area. But TVA Chairman Herbert D. Vogel officially notified the Budget Bureau yesterday "it is Memphis' intent to provide the generating facilities needed to meet the power requirements of the Memphis distribution system. And that the city will not seek renewal of its present power supply contract with the TVA when the contract expires in June 1958."

Vogel told Hughes in his letter that the city's action eliminates the possibility of using the Dixon-Yates output in the Memphis area and that transmission costs involved, plus other factors, "would make it impracticable for TVA to utilize that power elsewhere in its system."

Arkansan Decides to Inspect Oil Well Before Taking It or a Cash Sum of $25,000

FAETTEVILLE (UP)—Vernon Fitzhugh, the man who must choose between a prize of $25,000 in cash or producing oil property potentially worth $100,000, today decided to inspect the Oklahoma field before making his decision.

Fitzhugh faced this dilemma because a won Amara Refrigeration Co. had won a "oilwell sweepstakes."

The winner and his family will drive to Owen county, west of Oklahoma City, over the July Fourth weekend, and then on Tuesday will inspect the two producing wells in operation on the 40-acre tract offered him. Fitzhugh's prize would be half interest in all oil and mineral rights to the property. Engineers' reports estimate this half interest could be worth as much as $100,000 in the next 30 years.

Arrangements for Fitzhugh to visit the property were made here by H. E. Bartz, executive of the Oklahoma City, Okla., Chicago, who conducted the contest for Amara and who brought the news to a winner yesterday.

Gertz said that the Fitzhugh would be viewing the oil property by W. W. Whitman, Jr., of Oklahoma City, well-known oil authority and publisher of an oil trade paper. Gertz said that the other half interest in the property offered Fitzhugh is owned by major oil companies.

Fitzhugh said he wanted to see the property and two producing wells as first step in "making the tough decision in my life."

Altogether said he has seen oil wells in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas, "have no inkling of the oil business and what would be involved to own it," he said.

Fitzhugh married and the father of two sons, 7 and Vernon, 11, must make a "agonizing" decision within about a week.

A Navy man, he now earns $5,000 a year maintaining dialing equipment. He and his wife, a nurse, are "still shaking and dazed" after they were informed that his wife had been drawn from 50,000 entries in from through the U. S. States.

"It sure is a tough decision," said Fitzhugh, who plans to get professional advice before the deadline. "Chance at our own home and big able to insure the boys' college education will be the principal factors affecting our decision."

The family moved here from Little Rock, Ark., last year to be near the University of Arkansas, which their sons in time will attend. They are in a $85-a-month rented house.

If Fitzhugh chooses the oil well, he would get immediate annual income of $3,000 a year. This, according to engineers' reports, would continue for about 30 years, with potential yield of some $100,000. In addition, he would have an interest in all oil and mineral rights on a 40-acre tract near Oklahoma City, where there now are producing wells in operation.

The cash could enable us to make a down payment on a home that we have been longing to buy, and in addition we could set our boys' college education," Fitzhugh said. "On the other hand, they will well could give a regular monthly income for many years, possibly pay us

8 Portuguese Jets Crash Pilots Killed

LISBON, Portugal (UP)—The Portuguese Air Force announced today that eight American-Built F-84 Thunderjets of the Portuguese Air Force in two stacked waves crashed follow the leader fashion into a fog shrouded mountain peak.

All eight pilots were killed in the multiple crash which forced cancellation of the nation's observance of Air Force day.

Earlier reports from the scene had said the eight planes collided together in air during maneuvers.

Later reports said the eight planes, which had been given Portugal as U. S. aid to a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), failed to clear a 3,000-foot peak in the fog-shrouded Carvalho mountains.

A third group of four planes skidded over the hidden mountain top and returned safely to Ota Air Base, 30 miles outside Lisbon.

The 12 planes had taken off on a short time earlier from Ota Air Base for a flying salute to the separate Portuguese Air Force which was created three years ago, on July 1, 1952.

The planes were flying in three tightly grouped formations of four planes each, the Air Force said.

Portugal's President Craveiro Lopes was among the spectators who had thronged to the Ota base to see the flying demonstration.

An Air Force spokesman said each of the 12 jet fighters that swept into the air this morning carried one man.

President Signs Draft Extension

WASHINGTON (AP)—Authority to draft young men 18½ to 26 for two years' active duty in the armed forces has been extended for four years.

President Eisenhower signed the extension into law last night a few hours before the old law expired at midnight.

The same act extends for two years the authority to draft doctors, dentists and veterinarians. The upper age limit was lowered from 51 years to 46.

Gentry Holds Up Ruling for More Data

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Tom Gentry today said he'd have to have more information before he could rule on whether sponsors of a move to refer the feed tax dispute to popular vote are entitled to 30 days to amend their petitions.

He asked Secretary of State C. G. Hall for copies of any documents "purporting to amend or correct" the petitions. He said he would have to see what was proposed before he made his decision.

Hall sent a copy of Gentry's letter to Alex Washburn of Hope, leader of the fight against removal of the two per cent sales tax from poultry and livestock feed.

Washburn, a newspaper publisher, and his associates last month filed petitions with sufficient signatures to refer to the November, 1956, general election a 1955 legislative act exempting the feed from the sales tax.

Gentry ruled that text of the petitions didn't meet all necessary legal requirements.

Washburn then asked for an additional 30 days to amend the petitions a period which the law apparently provides for.

Hall asked Gentry if the 30-day period was proper in the present case.

Body of One Marine Found in Wreckage

By JOHN RANDOLPH
TOKYO (AP)—The body of one of four missing U. S. Marine fliers was found today in the wreckage of a jet plane on Oshima Island 65 miles south of Tokyo.

The Marine Corps tentatively identified the body as that of Lt. Alan Murdock McAneny, Yonkers, N.Y.

Searchers positively identified the wreckage as the FJ2 Jet fighter flown by McAneny and which disappeared Tuesday in the search for two other Marine fliers who vanished in fog Sunday night.

McAneny was a son-in-law of the publisher of the Rome (N.Y.) Sentinel.

The plane was discovered by islanders as the search neared the end of its fifth day for the first two and a helicopter crewman who was lost Wednesday.

Strike Averted, Owners, Union in Agreement

By NORMAN WALKER
PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. Steel Corp. and the CIO United Steelworkers today agreed on a 15-cent plus average hourly wage hike to end the shortest national strike in the steel industry's 100-year history.

The union's wage-policy committee gave a cheering, whistling ovation to union President David J. McDonald.

McDonald personally negotiated the wage pact in nearly eight long talks with John A. Stephens, vice president and chief negotiator for U. S. Steel.

The walkout began at midnight last night, but the settlement was expected to get idle mills and furnaces back into operation in quick order.

Other major steel firms were expected to quickly fall in line with similar settlements. Agreements with the prospect that a prospering steel industry would be back humming in full operation by Tuesday morning following the Fourth of July holiday.

However, union leaders said picket lines would be maintained outside struck steel plants until agreements of each company were signed and sealed.

The formal agreement between U. S. Steel and the union was signed this afternoon.

The union planned to meet immediately with officials of other major steel producing companies for expected negotiations identical 15-cent wage increase agreements.

These companies are: Republic, Jones & Laughlin, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Inland Steel, and the American Bridge Co.

McDonald was widely credited with ending the union's wage policy strike.

Other union officials said the 54-year-old union leader should be given a victory parade by photographers.

House Favors Foreign Aid Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House yesterday approved a $500-million foreign military and economic aid program for the year 1955.

The measure, known as the "Foreign Aid Act," was passed by a vote of 347 to 100.

The measure authorizes the President to adjust the foreign aid program to meet the needs of the world.

Senate previously authorized authorization 130 million larger. President Eisenhower asked about 3½ billion for fiscal appropriation, still under on may be trimmed.

Strong Democratic opposition to the program has been building since the President's proposal to restrict help to Yugoslavia and India.

On final passage, by a 347 to 100 vote, the bill was supported by 159 Democrats and 114 Republicans; opposed by 48 Democrats and 80 Republicans.

The House eliminated a $100-million dollar reserve military aid requested by the President. It also endorsed a Senate provision requiring return to the Treasury all military aid funds from past appropriations, in excess of $1 million dollars, for which no allotments have been made.

The turnback is estimated at $70 million dollars.

WEATHER FORECAST
Breezy, cloudy and continued warm weather, with a few showers or showers, and evening thunderstorms, high this afternoon in low 90s, low in night near 70.

WE HOLD THESE TRUTHS TO BE SELF-EVIDENT THAT ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL, THAT THEY ARE ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS, AMONG THESE ARE LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, THAT TO SECURE THESE RIGHTS GOVERNMENTS ARE INSTITUTED AMONG MEN WE... SOLEMNLY PUBLISH AND DECLARE, THAT THESE COLONIES ARE AND OF RIGHT OUGHT TO BE FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES... AND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THIS DECLARATION, WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE, WE MUTUALLY PLEDGE OUR LIVES, OUR FORTUNES AND OUR SACRED HONOR.

It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country! It's Independence Day! The Spirit of 1776 is alive. The right to freedom of worship must prevail. It is the Fourth July!

The influence of Washington, the "Father of Our Country," is felt in every forward step America takes. The Flag, the Stars and Stripes, waves over a loyal and sacrificing people. The flag for strength and elevation of thought and purpose is affixed our coin to show our exclusive right. All this reminds us that a People had to learn to be a united people. Out of the many came one nation... E Pluribus Unum.

The great Document above, The Declaration of Independence, was adopted on that memorable day. This noble experiment of government, "of the people, by the people, for the people," guarantees every citizen of our country certain inalienable rights... Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness. We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want rest. But we mean to have our freedom and independence, whatever the cost. This is Independence Day!
